

ANDREW TAKAMI
PHILANTHROPY

Case for Support
Feasibility Study
Greater Faith Church Capital Campaign
February 10, 2020

Notes

Objective

To expand the moral footprint of the Church within Southern Indiana through a community capital project and support for faith-based initiatives, ensuring the progress and sustainable growth of individual citizens continue.

Goals/Initiatives

I. The Church

- To provide a venue for God to be worshiped;
- To provide a venue for the needs of people - both naturally and Spiritually - to be served;
- To provide a venue for community fellowship among people of Faith;
- To provide a venue to serve as a focal point for corporate prayer for our community; and
- To provide a venue for corporate giving to support missions - both foreign and domestic.

II. The Space

- To provide a venue for conventions, conferences, retreats, and seminars;
- To provide a venue for local and statewide businesses to host events, meetings, conventions, expos, and other activities;
- To provide a venue for national and international businesses to host conventions that would infuse additional revenue into the local economy;
- To provide start-ups and small businesses with co-working and boardroom space; and
- To bring national distinction to Southern Indiana through unique use of the overall space.

III. The People

- To provide food and clothing for impoverished members of our community;

ANDREW TAKAMI
P H I L A N T H R O P Y

- To provide professional daycare services for families who wish to enroll their children into a Christ-centered environment;
- To provide a venue to house a free health clinic for the community;
- To provide a venue for frequent health fairs;
- To provide community education through college learning centers, in partnership with area universities; and
- To offer after-school life skills classes to participating K-12 students.

IV. The Neighborhood

- To provide a venue for a farmer's market;
- To provide green space for local residents, as well as patrons and employees of nearby businesses;
- To promote public gathering through uniquely designed spaces; and
- To create an overall natural environment where families can connect with one another.